

Greetings!

The Holy Spirit has descended!

We are just about 5 weeks away from camp, and are busy planning and preparing for everyone's arrival. In the middle of preparing the schedule for this year we received word that His Grace Bishop Irenei regrettably will be unable to join us due to "certain circumstances of his episcopal responsibilities, outside of (his) control." He is hopeful to join us at a future camp, but this year won't work. Some of you may recall this occurring a few years back, and the resultant camp was very relaxing and low key. We are looking forward to a very relaxed camp where we can focus on fellowship, and enjoying a communal vacation at a very lovely location. The children's/teen's programs are continuing, we are blessed to have Fr. Jerry Markopoulos, Pda. Esther Lubliner, and Daniel Balter providing morning sessions on our Holy Image theme including Iconography, and Archpriest Fr. James Baglien will be serving the Wednesday night vigil and Thursday liturgy.

It is my hope that we will have the schedule firmed up over the next week. Once it is complete we will send it out along with other helpful resources.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact us.

In Christ,

Joanna Jaquette
Coordinator
St. John's Family Camp