

Beautiful Kiwanis Sky Camp,
next to Fall Creek Reservoir
near Lowell, Oregon

At St. John the Wonderworker Family Camp, Orthodox Christians are strengthened, inspired, and refreshed, both praying and playing together in a beautiful lakeside setting a half hour from Eugene, Oregon. Every day begins and ends with prayer and is filled with activities and talks. Sharing in the common life of the camp, we keep costs down.

FEATURED GUEST SPEAKER:
Hieromonk James (Corazza)
of the Old Joy of All Who Sorrow Russian Orthodox Cathedral in San Francisco
"A Life of Your Own in Christ"

Great food & fellowship

Planned by parishioners from six Northwest parishes and four jurisdictions, the camp, inaugurated in 2000, operates with the blessing of Bishop Maxim of the Serbian Orthodox Western Diocese.

Come and participate in a vacation that will strengthen your connection to both faith and family.

WORKSHOPS/EVENTS:

- Theatre (Teens & Children)
- Singing • Kayaking • Services
- Swimming • Crafts • Music
- Folk Dancing • Talent Show
- Classes • Hiking • Great Food
- AND LOTS MORE!

Swimming